tea recipes, benefits and what not

We believe, you are never old to rebuild a taste - reset your body and renew your life. Having said that, we aspire to change the way people see tea, after all, it is more than just a transparent drink. So, allow us to redefine tea, to help clarify fact from myth, and to outline the importance of tea not only in world history, but in our own lives. Let's rethink tea, and be aware that the taste and magic is not found in tea leaves, in the liquor it creates, or in our relationships to these things, but in its ability to help us feel connected to our shared humanity

THE ANATOMY OF OUR TEA

Soil that did the babysitting

Thin air of mountains that nurtured it

Yearly timetable of scheduled pruning pest-control and fertilisation

Raw and fresh hand plucked leaf of Camellia Sinesis

Withering, Bruising, Oxidising, Fixing, Drying

Distinctive, trademark flavour

THE TWO ETERNAL TRUTHS

Rethink Tea Rethink Gifts

Is tea just a transparent drink? No Way! Tea is the new juice. Naturally rich in antioxidants and low in sugar, tea is the most compelling health brew right now. If a quick look around is any indication, it is experiencing a major fashion and wellness renaissance. From facialists to herbalists to body cleansing diehards committed to their well-being, tea is increasingly top of the mind

We believe, Mother Earth is gracious and precious. There is a lot in her green depths, and a lot of it is still unexplored. From seed to plant to cup, while tea devotes its whole life to the humankind, let us devote a part of ourselves to this unparalleled gift of god and bring moments of natural wellbeing to our loved ones
